Hand-picked at 25° Brix. Whole berries are cold soaked at 50° F for 48 hours before being inoculated. Punch downs are performed twice daily to promote the extraction of color, flavor and aromas. After fermenting until dry, the wine ages for 16 months in a combination of French and American neutral oak barrels.

TASTING NOTES

Inviting aromas of dark berries, currants, and vanilla. On the palate, savory dark fruits, toasted oak, and hints of spice precede silky tannins and a long-lasting finish.
